CASTELLO DI LEONINA in Asciano (province of Siena)

Fortress of the fourteenth century, once it was home to cardinal Fabio Chigi who afterwards became pope Alexander II. After a careful restoration, the Leonina Castle became a marvelous hotel at the summit of a hill just in the center of "Crete senesi" area. You can relax yourself in the external swimming pool, or in the panoramic whirlpool tub, both immersed in the middle of the Tuscan countryside. Inside the castle you can find a reading hall and a Tv hall, bicycles for the clients, in summer season live music by the piano. You can also find a little Wellness Center where clients can use the aromatherapy showers, the Turkish steam bath, or have massages.

The restaurant "The balcony of Leonina" is renowned for its high quality cuisine prepared after ancient traditional Tuscan recipes. Exquisite meals that preserve the gastronomic legacy of Tuscany, all, as one would expect, accompanied by the finest wines of the region. It is open on dinners (7:30 p.m. – 10 p.m.) and closed on Tuesday. In addition the charming frescoed halls of the restaurant are perfect for important events like weddings and banquets: the banqueting hall (Salone delle Feste) can seat up to 100 persons.
